Signs of an Opioid Overdose

Unresponsive / won't wake up

Slow, shallow, or no breathing

Pinpoint pupils

Blue or gray lips/nails

Gurgling, snoring, or choking sounds

Pale, cold, or clammy skin

If you suspect an overdose, act fast: Give naloxone (Narcan) and call 911.

Contact Us or SAMHSA:

soma-opc@chsu.edu

@chsu_opc

Substance Abuse & Mental Health National Helpline
+1 (800) 622 - HELP